

Learn: Regional Conversations on Pastoral Care - Aberdeen and Shetland, Kincardine and Deeside, Gordon, Buchan, Moray

Caring for one another has been an essential part of congregational life, especially during the COVID-19 pandemic. Pastoral care has been delivered in numerous ways. These conversations aim to reflect on how we individually and as the Church have been looking after one another and discuss how more effectively and efficiently we could play our parts in our congregations and communities. These conversations will nurture participants with diverse stories of pastoral care and inspire them to better handle a variety of needs.

What: Online conversations on pastoral care in nine different regions. The 27 September event will be for the Aberdeen and Shetland, Kincardine and Deeside, Gordon, Buchan, and Moray regions.

When: 27 September, 7.30 pm

For whom: For anyone involved and interested in pastoral care ministry in the Church of Scotland

Ticket: Free

Booking: regional-conversations-on-pastoral-care.eventbrite.co.uk

Contact: learn@churchofscotland.org.uk